The image shows a presentation interface with a 'Share' dialog box open. The dialog box has three tabs: 'Invite collaborators' (highlighted with an orange circle), 'Participation', and 'Presentation sharing'. The 'Invite collaborators' tab contains a message: 'Would you like to collaborate on this presentation? You need to upgrade to a Pro account in order to invite others to collaborate on this presentation.' Below the message is a green 'Upgrade' button. At the bottom of the dialog, it says 'Following people have access to edit this presentation' and lists 'Ana (me) OWNER' with the email 'agutfer772@g.educaand.es'. In the background, the presentation interface is visible, showing a 'Share' button (highlighted with a yellow circle) and a 'Present' button. Other interface elements include 'Saved', 'Examples', 'Themes', 'Settings', 'Slide type' (set to 'Ranking'), and 'Slide settings' (with options like 'Show image', 'Close voting', 'Hide instructions bar', and 'Hide results').
